

OPEN CALL FOR PROPOSALS

15TH INTERNATIONAL STREET THEATRE FESTIVAL HOLZMINDEN
(GERMANY) – 7 TO 9 JUNE 2019

Kulturbüro and the city of Holzminden is organising the fifteenth edition of the “International Street Theatre Festival” which will take place from Friday 7 til Sunday 9 June 2019.

Situated in the north of Germany near Hannover, the charming city of Holzminden did host this festival for its first time in 1991. Since then the festival takes place every two years. As the founder of the festival kulturbüro will be in charge of the conception, organisation and the realisation in cooperation with the city of Holzminden.

Numerous productions celebrated their première in Holzminden and gained international reputation through this. The last ten festivals were visited by over 700.000 people in total, enjoying 250 productions of 180 street theatre companies so far.

Any professional theatre groups may send in their applications. The production must be intended to be played exclusively in public open air spaces and must also be played there. The artistic range includes street- and parc performances as well as walking acts, theatrical animations and parades, small in size as well as technically elaborated open air productions. There can be theatrical productions in the field of visual and performing arts, performance, dance-theatre, figural- and mask-theatre and new circus that are played in the open air.

The organiser covers the entire costs of the performances (artistic fee, travel costs, hotel, catering and the required technical equipment at the performance place).

For your application we kindly ask you following information:

- please fill out the registration form (next pages)
- please send the complete registration form by post together with video, photos, press review, technical requirements of the show registered on a USB-Stick (only Windows!)

to kulturbüro until the 1st of December 2018:
